- 1) "Every man is as full of the Holy Spirit as he wants to be. He may not be as full as he wishes he were, but he is most certainly as full as he wants to be." (Tozer)
- 2) "I find it most intriguing to contemplate the fact that while men are considering what place to give Jesus Christ in history, He has already decided what place to give them in eternity."
(Leonard Ravenhill)
- 3) "No man is greater than his prayer life." (Leonard Ravenhill)
- 4) "Are the things you are living for worth Christ dying for?" (Leonard Ravenhill's tombstone)
- 5) "We have been deluded into believing that there are two kinds of war, physical and spiritual, but there is only war.... Lucifer has bewitched Christians into accepting a subtle lie that has huge consequences. We say the Christian life is like a war. It sounds innocent, but it casts a disastrous symbolism to something that is desperately real. If we are in something like a war, then the bible becomes something like the word of God, and we face something like an attack, and we put on something like the armor of God.... Our methods and traditions have helped the devil create an entire generation that is informed but not transformed." (Evangelist Mario Murillo)
- 6) "Christianity did not come to the world to apologize for its existence or to beg a place to live. It came as heaven's champion: it has the champion soul. "It shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel." (Gen. 3:15). That champion consciousness is in the soul of the Christian. Being born of God, he is champion of the Son of God and a demonstration His salvation. He is the champion of God. He cannot be anything else. 'As he is so are we in this world.' (1Jn. 4:17).... I fear sometimes that we moderns somehow have lost the spirit of original Christianity. We have lost the overcoming of it. We have lost the smash of it. We are begging the devil for a place in the world, apologizing for our faith in God, trying to conform our religion to the mind of the world." (John G. Lake)
- 7) "We are only as victorious as we want to be. Lack of inner victory cannot be blamed on anyone but ourselves. Each man has his own measuring cup and measures out the quantity of victory he desires. Beyond that, for some perverse reason, we will not stretch ourselves. Today, the message of victory is being misrepresented, cheapened, and diluted by Christians who are content with lowered standards and limited victory because in their hearts, they do not really want victory." (China Missionary Arthur Matthews)
- 8) "Indeed the safest road to Hell is the gradual one--the gentle slope, soft underfoot, without sudden turnings, without milestones, without signposts....Your affectionate uncle, Screwtape."
(C.S. Lewis from his book The Screwtape Letters)
- 9) "Do not be deceived, Wormwood. Our cause is never more in danger than when a human, no longer desiring, but still intending, to do our Enemy's (God's) will, looks round upon a universe from which every trace of Him (God) seems to have vanished, and asks why he has been forsaken, and still obeys....Your affectionate uncle, Screwtape." (C.S. Lewis from his book The Screwtape Letters)

16) "I don't want a visitation from God. I want a habitation." (David Wilkerson)

17) "I believe that the Word of God and the Holy Spirit are God's two primary modes for speaking to believers today. When I say the Holy Spirit 'speaks', I do not mean audibly. Rather, He impresses His will in my spirit or mind, and I hear Him in my inner being. Though not audible, the communication is precise nevertheless." (Charles Stanley)

18) "The Bible is the most priceless possession of the human race." (Henry Halley)

19) "The pen, not the lips, is mightier than the sword." (unknown)

20) "Be careful not to just idly pray about things you know you should be taking action on." (unknown)

28) "Of all bad men, religious bad men are the worst." (C S Lewis)

29) "Has it ever occurred to you that one hundred pianos all tuned to the same fork are automatically tuned to each other? They are of one accord by being tuned, not to each other, but to another standard to which each one must individually bow. So one hundred worshipers met together, each one looking toward Christ, are in heart nearer to each other than they could possibly be, were they to become 'unity' conscious and turn their eyes away from God to strive for closer fellowship." (A.W. Tozer, The Pursuit of God)

30) "Silence in the face of evil is itself evil. God will not hold us guiltless. Not to speak is to speak. Not to act is to act." (Dietrich Bonhoffer)

31) "If we were machines, we could only comply. But, as humans we have the ability to express love. You cannot have love without intrinsically weaving in the freedom of the will. Simply put, you cannot have love without freedom of the will. If love is a supreme ethic and freedom is indispensable to love and God's supreme goal for us is that we will love Him with all of our hearts and love our neighbors as ourselves -- for Him to violate our freewill would be to violate that which is a necessary component so that love can flourish and love can be expressed. If you are asking God to violate our freewill, you are asking Him to violate a vital component of love." (Ravi Zacharius when asked, "Why doesn't God stop crimes and tragedies?")

32) "Scripture is God's Word. It is the standard by which we must live. But it is not a measure by which we gain acceptance with God. Rather it is a guide for living." (David Johnson/Jeff VanVonderen in the book 'The Subtle Power of Spiritual Abuse')

33) "The Christian life begins with freedom from dead works, from religious systems and from all human attempts to please God. (David Johnson/Jeff VanVonderen in the book 'The Subtle Power of Spiritual Abuse')

34) "Both Old and New Testaments warn of false prophets and spiritual systems that add the performance of religious behaviors to the performance of Jesus on the cross as a means to find God's approval." (David Johnson/Jeff VanVonderen in the book 'The Subtle Power of Spiritual Abuse')

35) "Even the best pastors are only hired hands. Only Jesus is the Good Shepherd." (Gary Wilkerson)

36) "May our faith be more than anthems and greater than the songs we sing." (from 'We Believe' by the Newsboys)

- 37) "Humans are naturally unable to make any effort towards salvation. Salvation is possible only by God's grace, which cannot be merited. No works of human effort can cause or contribute to salvation. God's election is conditional on faith in the sacrifice and Lordship of Jesus Christ. Christ's atonement was made on behalf of all people. God allows his grace to be resisted by those who freely reject Christ. Salvation can be lost, as continued salvation is conditional upon continued faith." (Jacobus Arminius)

- 44) "We do not want to give you the therapeutic gospel that only touches your behavior and doesn't change your character." (Dr. David Jeremiah)
- 45) "Church isn't about what you or I can do; it's about what Christ has done." (Gary Wilkerson)
- 46) "The Left and their cohorts in the liberal media love to confuse a situation in order to deceive you. It's often called misdirection. But we'll call it deception." (Adam Casalino)
- 47) "Agape love is a mindset, not a feeling. Feelings are to follow actions, not the other way around." (David Jeremiah)

57) "Much of man's worship experience is more soulish than spiritual. Within typical church liturgy there is much that appeals to the soulish nature of man. The ornate robes, the choral chants, the candles and incense—all move me to a pleasant psychic experience of reverence. On the other end of the spectrum, the uncontrolled release of the emotions, with shouting, clapping, and dancing, moves other people to strong psychic experiences. It is possible that neither truly touches my spirit. In Hebrews 4:12 we read that the Word of God is sharper than a two-edged sword, and is able to divide between the soul and the spirit. It is God's Word that ministers to the spirit of man and feeds the spirit. ...Often, hungry and sincere believers who sense a lack of power in their lives will go to their services with an open, hungry heart seeking God's power, but when they observe the absence of solid scriptural content and the presence of distasteful fleshly manifestations, they turn their backs on the whole valid and beautiful work of God's Spirit that a person can experience in his life." (Chuck Smith from his book 'Charisma Vs. Charismania')

I would say also for several years now Americans in a sense have shaken their fist at God and said, God, we want you out of our schools, our government, our business, we want you out of our marketplace. And God, who is a gentleman, has just quietly backed out of our national and political life, our public life. Removing his hand of blessing and protection. We need to turn to God first of all and say, God, we're sorry we have treated you this way and we invite you now to come into our national life. We put our trust in you. We have our trust in God on our coins, we need to practice it." (Anne Graham Lotz, daughter of Billy Graham, when asked by CBS, "How could God let 9/11 happen if God is good?")

61) "Remember that God is the key to powerful prayer, not self-manufactured emotional intensity. Faith is confident in the power of God, the wisdom of God, the love of God, the timing of God, and the Word of God." (Unknown)

And the fourth part is listening / understanding / obeying.....Now go and do it, and do it without ceasing." (Unknown)

66) "The ignorance of leadership today is that they go after the means rather than the source. The Bible tells us that the human heart is the source of evil, not the instruments used to carry it out. Unless I am convicted by scripture and plain reason—I do not accept the authority of popes and councils for they have contradicted each other—my conscience is captive to the Word of God. I cannot and I will not recant anything, for to go against conscience is neither right nor safe. Here I stand, I cannot do otherwise, God help me. Amen." (Martin Luther's reply April 18, 1521 at Worms when urged to recant)
